[Redacted content]

Public comment may be (1) emailed to publiccomment@scusd.edu; (2) submitted in writing, identifying the matter number and the name of the public member at the IPI <https://tinyurl.com/...> or (3) using the same IPI submitting a request for oral comment only when the matter is called, instead of written comment. Individual public comment shall be presented to the Board orally for no more than two minutes, or other time determined by the Board on each agenda item. Public comments submitted in writing will not be read aloud, but will be provided to the Board in advance of the meeting and posted on the District's website. The Board shall allow a reasonable time for public comment on each agenda item, not to exceed 15 minutes in length, including communications and organizational reports. With Board consent, the President may increase or decrease the length of time allowed for public comment, depending on the agenda item and the number of public comments. Speakers will be called sequentially until there is no speaker coming forward on the agenda item or the amount of time allocated for the agenda item has elapsed, whichever occurs first.

Public Comment on Closed Session: None

3.0 CLOSED SESSION

While the Brown Act creates broad public access rights to the meetings of the Board of Education, it also recognizes the legitimate need to conduct some of its meetings outside of the public eye. Closed session meetings are specifically defined and limited in scope. They primarily involve personnel issues, pending

Terrence Gladney
Sanantha Alvarez

Board Comments

Member Murawski reminded that now is the time to discuss this, as next time it will be brought before the Board for a vote.

Member Villa referred to Mr Gladney's comment by saying she appreciates his comment and that she has heard from her community members who feel likewise; they feel the map cannot be manipulated for the Title I schools. She feels it is important to represent the students that live in their neighborhoods; she does not agree with moving the map boundaries as the results are not representative of the areas Board members were elected to represent.

Second Vice President Rhodes made a motion to extend the meeting to 11:30 p.m. Member Woo seconded. The motion passed 5-1 with Member Phillips voting no and President Pritchett absent from Open Session.

Board Comments

Member Murawski said, as she feels things are very different this year regarding student needs, she he would like to hold onto as many staff positions as possible rather than holding to a formula as has been done in the past. She would like to see this built into the budget.

Second Vice President Rhodes said he is aligned with Member Murawski's comments. He said he is excited about the expanded learning opportunity program.

Acting President Garcia said she also would like to change the conversation about how the District plans to meet the needs of students next year. She noted that this is the third school year that has been affected by the pandemic. She acted as president because said she is excited to address this
