2022-23 NO. BS-20 December 9, 2022 Page 2

These funds are for actions that rease or improve services for target student groups. The actions should be determined based on regudeds assessments which include measures for evaluating their effectiveness, and are aligned to Equity, Access, and Social Justice Guiding Principle and the Core Value.

Guiding Principle All students are given arqeal opportunity to graduate with the greatest numbef postsecondary choices from the widest array of options

Core Value

We recognize that our systemine quitable by design and wegikantly work to confront and interrupt inequities that existe level the playing field and pride opportunities for everyone to learn, grow and reach their greatness.

Please note that actions funded by Title 1 laOd F Supplemental and Commutation Grant funds should not supplant any part of school's core or 'bas' program. This includes staffing, materials/supplies, and services.

Here are some broad categories of Title 1 and LCFF Supplemental and Concentration Grant use. This list is not exhaustive and so pleasensult with the State and Federal team with additional questions.

- Strategic Interventionis any content area
- Multiple Tiered System of Support (MSTS)/Data Based Decision Making (Where applicable)
- Professional Learning aligned district mission/vision, rad site mission/mission and can explain alignment
- Actions tied to research based practi demonstrating student achievement

We will also be incorporating the LCFF Prograce for salaries and benefits funded with your LCFF LI (Low Income), R0007, and CFF EL (English Learner), R0009.

Please call your Fund Specialistymur Instructional Assistanguperintendent if you have any questions or concerns regarding budget development materials.

CC: Lisa Allen, Deputy Superintendent Cancy McArn, Chief Human Resources Officer Dr. Sadie Hedegard, Assistant Superintendent, Special Education, Innovation and Learning Aprille Shafto, Instructional Assistant Superintendent Enrique Flores, Instructional Assistant Superintendent Tuan Duong, Instructional Assistant Superintendent Vanessa Buitrago, Instructional Assistant Superintendent Christine Villegas, Director, Human Resources David Van Nattan, Director, Human Resources Nanci Rose, Director, Human Resources