Comment:    Dear Board,

Over the past few months you have been talking about budget cuts and layoffs. As a parent, I'd like to address why teachers should not be a part of this discussion.

First, teachers are the life-line for our students during this COVID season of highs and lows. They are our first responders. They are our eyes and ears on the ground with our children since we are not able to be as common. Parents are being encouraged to be more involved in their quickly I am a parent at Crocker Riverside but also volunteer at our beloved sister school, Leataata Floyd. Although these two schools seem like opposites to each other, there are similarities that I'm confident parallel the other schools in our district. 1. The teachers love and advocate for their students in a season of learning loss; 2. The schools provide SEL to families which is crucial at this point in global history and 3. Removing consistent adults in the lives of children's lives has shown to negatively impact the students and school staff.

Thank you for all the care you are putting into these decisions. My request is to let things ride out
