Comment: I am writing today to encourage the board to vote to preserve the parent participation preschool program within the district. As a parent of a former student at the Tahoe Elementary location, the parent participation preschool program was an invaluable beginning to my child's education.

I know it was on the chopping block last year and needed to prove it could pay for itself. Tahoe's program was completely, fully-enrolled for the 20-21 school year before the end of last school year. It would have paid for itself this year had COVID not kept schools

Comment: We all know these are difficult times and there are no perfect answers. How exactly to weight the benefits of in-person learning with the mortal dangers the pandemic poses is a conundrum none of us can resolve without deleterious consequences. I understand there are no right answers.

My concern is not with specific decisions that have been made, but by the lack of clear answers provided by the District. And I am referring to the District's own FAQs, offered at <https://learn.scusd.edu/learning-options> to supposedly answer questions parents and student have.

One question asks "What if my student's teacher is not available to come back in

Comment: I would like to bring up the continuing mental and emotional abuse that ms Steven's a

P.E teacher at rosemont high school is still being allowed to do to the children who attend her classes. I have been having this issue since the beginning of this school year and we are going on 7 months now with no actions. Through my search for a resolution to the continued bullying I have found a community thread on Facebook 12/1/20
