RESOLUTION NO. 3310

“Transgender Day of Visibility”

WHEREAS, On March 31, 2009, trans activist Rachel Crandall started the International
-binary, gender-nonconforming, and gender-diverse; and

WHEREAS, International Transgender Day of Visibility is a time to celebrate the lives and achievements of transgender, non-binary, gender-nonconforming, and gender-diverse individuals around the world, and to recognize the strength, courage, and determination it takes to live openly and authentically; and

WHEREAS, International Transgender Day of Visibility is also a time to raise awareness of the discrimination and violence that the transgender community still faces, which make it difficult and unsafe for many transgender people to be visible; and

WHEREAS, The transgender community has suffered disproportionately in many ways, including by workplace and educational discrimination and being subject to violence, and these forms of oppression are exacerbated for transgender people of color, people with limited resources, immigrants, and people living with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, Transgender students experience high rates of bullying, victimization, and harassment at school on the basis of their actual or perceived gender identity, or that of their associates; and

WHEREAS, This bullying, victimization, and harassment can lead to negative mental health outcomes, negative educational outcomes for transgender students, including higher rates of dropping out, higher rates of absenteeism, and lower postsecondary school aspirations, and these outcomes are markedly worse for transgender students of color; and

WHEREAS, We are increasingly seeing some states attempting to target the transgender
