Board Comment.

Student Member Sheikh asked if the three feet distancing stipulation can be adjusted without having to completely renegotiate. Mr. Bozio said that upon ratification of the MOU the parties can have further discussions about potential changes. Student Member Sheikh asked if the District is looking to come back to discussions before summer regarding the three feet spacing. Mr. Bozio said his response would be the same as already given. Student Member Sheikh said that he is grateful for the MOU however the agreement leaves out those that need it the most hopes that more information can be brought to the public after Spring break. He clarified his stance on this item. He knew that the MOU would be ratified. He wants the return to school, but will be voting no because he feels there is a lot that needs to be changed.

President Duitchett said he was looking forward to meeting with the board after the break.
